

SCOTT PRYOR

Scott Pryor, is an American singer, songwriter and rocker. Born in Montana, Scott Pryor traveled around the world as part of an incredibly varied life journey where he is a U.S. Marine Veteran, trial lawyer and an award-winning filmmaker- now - a successful musical artist. Scott Pryor's life story feels like the American dream personified. Steeped in passion and emotion, he writes about the heartbreak and tragedy that accompanies a life full of love, struggle and fierce competition.

His whole life, Scott Pryor has always been drawn to music. He says that his father first lit the spark in him. "Originally, my father was my biggest influence," Scott Pryor said. "He plays honky-tonk piano and is one of the best in the world. He has even been referred to as a savant on the piano in that style of music." Inspired by the stadium-sized rock of artists like U2, Pearl Jam, Post Malone, Nirvana, Bruce Springsteen, Jared Leto, Tina Turner, Imagine Dragons, Linkin Park, Foo Fighters, GNR, and Metallica, Scott Pryor homed in on a heart-on-sleeve multifaceted rock style. Scott's voice somehow manages to toe the line between being rich and full-bodied and grveled and vulnerable.

He built up a team around him - including vocal coach/producer "Mama Jan" Smith (Rob Thomas, Usher, Justin Bieber), and Jesse Owen Astin, musician/producer (Demi Lovato, Juliet Simms, Billy Ray Cyrus). In addition, Scott Pryor works daily with a vocal coach and singer-songwriter, Heidi Huelskoetter, to work on his voice and songwriting skills. This close team helped Scott Pryor unleash his long-held musical ambitions.

Scott Pryor's life changed forever when his son Elijah Pryor committed suicide in 2023, when Scott was recording his first album. Scott Pryor wrote a song called "Wide Awake" and named his first album, "Wide Awake" in honor of his sons struggles with mental health. Scott Pryor's mission is to change lives through powerful and relevant story telling through film and music. Scott Pryor, is currently working on his second album.

"Scott Pryor is one of the most intense creatives I've had the pleasure of working with. The fact that he's a Marine only speaks to his detail orientation and commitment to excellence. His visual skillset helps him to be a better storyteller, and his accomplished athleticism only compliments his already ridiculous work ethic."
